Dear Timi,

While you were circling the globe the U.C.L.A. authorities were mute. Your letter from the antipodes shook them into mild action. Small A. Ulrich wrote a letter. But this letter somehow draws the performance of my Concerto da Camera into the act. I am lost since I do not know anything about this performance. I have not signed the agreement with the C.C.S. since U.C.L.A. did not make the promised offer. Now that the offer is here but based partly on an unknown factor I am not accepting it either: both must wait till you come back and put things where they belong.

With fond regards,

Yours Victor
